

2023 Fall Class with Patti Goke at Living Waters Lutheran Church

Patti Goke is a Vesterheim Gold Medalist whose interest is with the lesser known styles. She has taken rosemaling classes from many US and Norwegian teachers in both countries. She was the tour guide for two Vesterheim Folk Art Tours. In 2016-2017 she traveled to Epcot, Orlando, Florida where she designed, taught, painted, and supervised other artists using her designs in the Frozen Meet and Greet and gift stores in the Norway Pavilion. Patti has taught coast to coast, and now is teaching online through Vesterheim Norwegian-American Museum and Nordic Canvas Folk Art Studio. Nordic Canvas Folk Art Studio is an online teaching venue that was started by Patti and Kim Garrett. Patti also studies, researches, and paints the painted folk arts of Sweden including bonadsmålning, dalmålning, and tuppamålning. She will start year four in the fall of a six year iconography apprenticeship. She paints using oils, acrylics, and egg tempera.
